ACADEMIC HONORS.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF MANEATTAN ACADEMY-DISTRIBUTION OF MEDALS AND DIPLOMAS. Lyric Hall was crowded by the numerous friends of the Manhattan Academy last evening, when the closing exercises of that institution took place, under the anspices of the Manhatian Literary Association. On the platform were several elergymen and gentlemen prominent in educational matters, and here and there among the audience were many city officials. After the singing of "O Hail Us Ye city officials. After the singing of "O Hail Us Ye Free" by the students, Joseph J. O'Grady's declaration was received with marked favor, while the plane duet by Joseph Smith and George Davis effecte considerable applause. More music followed, when Master J. T. Walsh read an essay entitled "A View of American Life." Tableaux which peculiarly enlisted the attention of the younger pupils came next. John J. Deery's deciamation, "Partasins and the Captive," closed the literary exercises proper, when diplomas were awarded to John J. Riger and John T. Walsh, and medals to Francis J. Haggerty, Lawrence O'Reilly and William Farrell.

ST. GABRIEL'S GRAMMAR SCHOOL FEMALE DE-PARTMENT.

The annual exhibition of St. Gabriel's Grammar School (female department), Thirty-sixth street, occurred in the afternoon, Rev. William H. Clowry presiding, Sister Mary Bernard principal. The proramme was interspersed with examinations in gram-Or and arithmetic, dialogues, choruses, recitations, es tys and readings. The salutatory address was delivered by Miss O'Leary, and the valedictory by Miss Darlington. One of the most pleasing features of the occasion was an interlude, cuitided, "Flowers and Birts," in which there was a minic court, the violet being crowned Queen, and in which the bluebird, robin, lark and wren were the little birdles that turnished the music. Each of the feathered singers was represented by a pretty little miss, who well understood her part, and sang with an ease and sweetness that exhibited much skifful training on the part of teachers. The chorus, meantime, kept up the full measure of symphony. A lively little ballet corps of some twenty-five wee bit people, with flowers and scarfs of gauze, exquisitely represented a fairy scene, over which Queen Violet presided with infinite grace. There were four graduates—Miss Lizzie Reynolds, Miss Magnie McGrath, Miss Jessie Chidwick and Miss Norah Flizpatrick—who severally received, at the hands of Father Clowry, testimonials, and a large number of others were the recipients of premiums. es tys and readings. The salutatory address was

At the annual reception of the Primary Department of Grammar School No. 5, Mott street, near Prince, a suitable programme was presented. The salutatory was given by Miss Euphemia Sullivan and saudatory was given by Miss Euphemfa Sullivan and the valedictory by Miss Teresa Merritt. "Pinafore" was not neglected in the person of Misster Marion Kelly, who sang "Little Luttercup" in fine style. The semi-annual certificates, numbering 150, were distributed, to the delight of the school and the large crowds of visitors who were present, after which addresses were made by Dr. Smith, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, who presided, and School Trustees Kinner and Dr. Thurn.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NO. 8-MALE DEPARTMENT. The annual reception of Grammar School No. 8 male department), No. 66 Grand street, took place in the large hall of the school. The programme was very full and was well carried out. The distribution of prizes, diplomas and certificates concluded the exercises. Twenty-five of the graduating pupils received prizes, five diplomas and 160 certificates. These are now candidates for admission to the College of the City of New York.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NO. 26.

The grammar department of public school No. 26, in West Thirtieth street, over which Mr. Hugh Carlisle is principal, presented a most animated appearance in the morning, the occasion being the annual commencement. The programme was very lengthy and embraced twenty-nine exercises, consisting of songs, soics, crations, declamations, recitations and dialogues. One of the leading features of the programme was a military drill of a battailion organized and exercised by Mr. William H. Van Cott, Jr., one of the teachers. The little fellows went through the evolutions sike veterans and elicited considerable applause. Edward Wheeler Scripture delivered the validatory. Celling of the roll of honor and distribution of diplomas closed the exercises, which lasted nearly four hours. commencement. The programme was very lengthy

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NO. 42.

The distribution of diplomas to the graduating classes of the female department of Grammar School No. 42, in Allen street, of which Miss C. Hopkins is principal, took place in the forenoon, in presence of the trustees, Messrs. Roome, Dennerline and Ross, and a large gathering of triends of the pupils.

The closing exercises of Grammar School No. 62, located in Third avenue, near 158th street, were well attended. Recitations varied with music, vocal and instrumental, comprised the programme of exercises, at the close of which addresses were delivered by several of the trustees. Following were the graduates:—D. Wakeman Sherwood, Samuel Jones, Louis Sufner, Richard Robitzek, Sarah F. Geraglaty, Frances C. Penecker, Maggie A. Hock, Mannie A. Hock. Lottie W. Buckout, Katie Frees, Ida N. Copp and Maggie McKeown.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NO. 68-PEMALE DEPART-MENT.

At the fourth commencement of the female department of Grammar School No. 68, 128th street, near Sixth avenue, an interesting programme was admirably carried out by the young ladies selected to represent the school, the graduating class, numbering thirty-four, appearing prominently, presentation of dipionas laving been made three gold medals, the ritt of the principal of the school, were awarded to Misses Carrie Cobb, Lulu Hickock and Jennie Platt. The valedictory was delivered by the last named young lady. After the "Graduates' song" addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. King. Mr. Fuller and Mr. Price.

BRAMMAR SCHOOL NO. 69-FEMALE DEPART-MENT.

The graduating exercises of the female department of Grammar School No. 69 were held in the afternoon before a large audience. An attractive programme had been prepared, and the selections were all rendered in a most becoming manner. The names of the graduates have already appeared in the Hernild. The honor students are:—Maggie A. Phillips, who stood at the head of the class; Augusta M. Schaller, Julia J. Murray, Lillie M. Shepard, Martha B. Eayles, Heien F. Van Aistyne, Sarah H. Currin and Mary J. Buckley.

регману всноот по. 32.

An informal reception was held at Primary School No. 32, of which Mrs. Kate P. Brown is principal. A programme of ten exercises was carried out. The recitations and singing of the little ones were very good and fully appreciated by the guests. Dr. Lordly, one of the ward trustees, presented the children with the semi-annual diplomas.

make it an established fact. The petition was referred to the Board of Trustees, and in all probability will be adopted. A letter of thanks was also received from a newly formed alumni association of the Southwest, dated from St. Louis.

Portraits of President Chalbourne, E. C. Benedict, Orrion Sage and Rev. Dr. William E. Hallock, of New York, were then formally presented and placed in the Alumni Hall.

The trustees' report showed invested funds to the amount of $209,229 65, of which all but $37,735 are pawing investments.

This atternoon, at two o'clock, class exercises were held in the Congregational Church and on the campus. The try was planted, and H. H. Fletcher, of Granby, delivered an oration.

CLASS DAY AT AMHERST.

AMHERST, Mass., July 1, 1879.

Class day exercises were held on the college grounds to-day, consisting of planting of the ivy by the graduating class, the ivy oration, a poem and singing of the "Ivy Ode." There were also exercises at the College Hall during the atternoon, in which C. H. Percival, of Maine, delivered an oration, "Our Search for Truth." G. S. Coit. Jr., of Ohio, recited a poem, and an oration was delivered on the college campus by W. H. Hagen, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.

Easton, Pa., July 1, 1879. The commencement exercises at Lafayette College were continued to-day. Rev. W. T. Scott, of the class of '69, Professor of Metaphysics, Wooster University, Ohio, delivered the annual oration.

The trustees at a meeting held to-day resolved to commence the rebuilding of Pardee Hall immediately. Meanwhile ample provision has been made for the scientific and technical courses.

CELESTIAL FUNERAL RITES.

BURIAL OF WEE KA YOUNG AT BELLEVILLE. N. J.—FANTASTIC CEREMONIES AND ORTHODOX

Wee Ka Yung, a Chinaman, was buried yesterday at Belleville, N. J., a short distance from a laundry where a great number of his countrymen are emplayed. The services were of a mixed nature, the Chinese rites and the Christian, the latter being represented by an orthodox minister. He was not an employeat the laundry. He lived in this city and went to Belleville on Sunday to procure some Chinese medicine for his consumption. There he died that evening. The Chinese at the laundry procured a handsome coffin, with silver mountings, in which Wee Ka Yung was interred. At five o'clock the Celestials, Rev. Mr. Strong, of the Reformed Church of Belleville; dindertaker Vreeland, the superintendent of the laundry and two or three gentlemen and five ladies were ushered into the room off the main entrance of the Chinese quarters. The walls were hung with Chinese papers, with strange devices interspersed with the motoes "God is Love" and "Simply to Thy Cross I Cling." Soon the body was borne into the hall, where the funeral services were conducted. The Celestials stood near the coffin, and while Rev. Mr. Strong offered up a brief prayer they scattered tribute money, pieces of paper about four inches long, with Chinese cheracters cut on them. After the prayer the coffin was carried out by four laboring men and placed in an open wagon drawn by one horse and covered with a blanket. A tin pan containing burning incense was placed in front of the coffin. Following the wagon was a man carrying a large market basket containing brown paper packages, and another carrying strips of paper, which he strewed all the way to the grave. Behind came the Chinese and visitors. Not a word was spoken during the solemn march. Arriving at the grave the coffin was lowered into it. The Rev. Mr. Strong prayed briefly, saying, "Earth to carth, ashes to ashes and dust to dust." After the grave was filled and mounded up a hole was made at the foct which was carefully concealed from the spectators. The man with the basket came forward, and from it were taken packages of candy, nuts, &c., which were poured into the jar. This was covered up with earth. A tin pan containing a little earth, in which were stuck white tapers, and a number of lighted incense sticks, and some peculiar red and white tapers were placed on top of the grave. A plate containing meat, small birds and a dressed chicken with the head on and arranged in a sitting position was deposited at the foot of the grave. Near this pan evening. The Chinese at the laundry procured a ome coffin, with silver mountings, in which

PARK DEPARTMENT ACCOUNTS.

Complaints against the Department of Parks have been repeatedly made within the past few weeksindeed, ever since the warm weather began to drive Ross, and a large gathering of triends of the pupils. The programme comprised recitations, essays, readings and nustical selections, in the rendition of which the scholars acquitted themselves admirably. The prizes presented were:—"Webster's Unabridged Dictionary," to Miss Katie Duffy, whose percentage was 92.6, and a handsome gold badge to Miss Mary Regan, whose answering was 91.7 per cent. Diplomas were awarded to the nine graduates whose names have been published. Mr. Jones addressed the graduates and read the result of the examination, which showed that ten of the pupils attained 100 per cent, eleven had a percentage of between 95 and 100, righty-three between 95 and 100, nichty-three between 95 and 100, nichty-three between 95 and 100, nichty-three between 95 and 100. nichty-three between 95 and 100, righty-three between 95 and 95. The total number of certificates awarded was 263.

people (the rich in carriages and the poor on foot) to people yet hushed. No one can walk the paths without seeing evidences of neglect on every side. It is said, too, that the inner workings of the department are not of a kind to court or desire scrutiny. Among other things it seems the annual returns from the leasing of various privileges are not accounted for in detail, but are "lumped" together in the Comptroller's books. In this way the income from each is concalled from the general public and investigation by private citizens rendered ineffective. The following letter from Mayor Cooper to Commissioner of Accounts Shearman explains itself:—
